In Our Drug Department

Prescriptions of all kinds are carefully compounded by experienced chemists. While we have the only complete line of Homoeopathic remedies in the city, the impression that we handle only these goods is not correct. As nearly every physician in the State who dispenses his own medicine is a customer, we are obliged to carry in stock many preparations not found in the ordinary drug store.Everything needed in the sick room may be obtained at Entertainments.

HYPHOTOS.C. B. Jefferson, Klav & Erlanger's gorgeous production of "Palmer Cox's Brownies," over which New Haven went wild with delight last spring, will return Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week, with a Saturday matinee. This brief engagement is sure to be attended with enormous houses, since the performance will be practically new to those who saw it last spring.
The advance sale opens at the box office of Manager Bunnell's beautiful temple of art this morning. The prices have been arranged on a scale of $1 for the best seats, and the free list has been absolutely suspended. Among the new faces in the company of over 100 people are those of Frank DeLeon, the imitable comedian, and late star of the Deshon Opera company; Inez Macomber, whose phenomenal soprano voice will be heard to great advantage in the role of Queen Titania; Lena Merville, the well known burlesque; and Sol Solomon, who will appear in the favorite character of the "Brownie" dude. Ida Mule will still be seen as Dame Drusilla, and will have new songs, burlesques, etc.
The international yacht race between the Defender and Valkyrie will be shown upon the stage in a highly ingenious manner. At every performance fragrant bouquets will be distributed among the audience by the pretty waiter girls who are a feature of "The Brownies." There will be an abundance of local allusions. A graceful compliment will be paid to the Cambridge athletes who are now the guests of Yale college, and there will be many other surprises that will delight the people of New Haven.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Still they come; good plays at low prices. The first three days this week we have farce comedy, introducing the clever comedian Joe Ott in "The Star Gazer." It introduces Mr. Ott in a new role, which is said to eclipse any of his former undertakings. In the fact that he represents a distinct individuality in the person of Professor Jupiter, Mare; the bogus astronomer. Mr. Ott has built up for himself a high reputation as a careful and conscientious actor. From his earliest boyhood days he has had a constant schooling in comedy, and his representation of aged and eccentric characters is most successfully marked.
His creation of the astronomer in "The Star Gazer" is of the same individual type; giving him the best possible advantage for the display of his unique methods for which he has become so famous. The supporting company is all that can be asked embracing talent chosen from among the best in the farce comedy field. Other features in favor of the new star and play is that new music, songs, dances, and other pleasing specialties will predominate throughout its action.There will be a matinee on Wednesday, prices, 10c, 20c, 25c.On Thursday, matinee and evening.
"The Great Brooklyn Handicap" will be presented.The new "White Squadron," the spectacular naval drama by James W. Har-kins, Jr., will be the attraction on Friday and Saturday evening.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.

Mr. Poli presents this week another strong attraction in Odell and Page, the noted silence and fun men. These noted tumblers and comedians are totally unlike any other who essay this kind of an act, and though they have many imitators, yet they stand in a class wholly by themselves. They are the very perfection of grace in their movements, and in everything they do they show a skill that defies imitation. To support them Mr. Poli has secured the Lucifers in their high jumping feats.
Brennan and Daly in their caricature of Dr. Parkhurst and Theodore Roosevelt.
Mazzotta in his great musical novelty, the famous Comedy trio, Mistman and Davis, the Clemens brothers, Miss Kitty Brocton and others, making a most very attractive bill.The three-story house known as the Red house, just over the Hamden line, was totally destroyed by fire about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, together with an adjoining barn, the entire loss being about $4,000. The property was formerly owned by Mrs. Eliza Murphy.
The fire was first seen in the cellar.
The house was unoccupied.
